

Babylon Public Library Trustee Candidates 2022-2023

Deborah Young-Szala and her husband have been residents of Babylon Village since 1988. Along with raising their two daughters, Deborah has been an active member of the community. She was appointed as a Trustee of the Babylon Public Library in 2011 and has served as Vice President, President, and Secretary during that time. She has been involved in several committees including the budget and by-laws committees.

Prior to becoming a Trustee of the library, Deborah was on the Board of the Babylon Village Youth Project for 11 years. She began her career working for the Town of Brookhaven Youth Bureau. Deborah spent 20 years working as a drug and alcohol prevention program Clinical Supervisor for Eastern Suffolk BOCES, retiring in 2012. She received her MSW from Adelphi University. Deborah has enjoyed her involvement at the library and hopes to continue serving the community as a Trustee.

Sandra Levine is a 17-year Babylon Resident, a parent, neighbor, and taxpayer, who believes libraries are essential community centers that must reflect and serve this ever-changing world. Sandra has decades of experience working in the nonprofit sector as a grant writer, program director, and educator, and is an active member of 'Friends of the Babylon Library.' Sandra greatly appreciates how libraries serve the entire community, with print and online resources, vital programs, and services. As a Babylon Library Trustee, Sandra will ensure that our library continues to provide the information, tools, and resources we all need to help Babylon Village thrive.
