Director's Message

Dear Friends,

How time flies when you're having so much fun at the library! Welcome to the coziest part of the Fall! We wish you all a wonderful holiday season with your loved ones.

You can start your holiday season on our bus trip to the New York Botanical Garden to see their annual train show and perhaps do some shopping on historic Arthur Avenue. And, remember to shop locally beginning with our Friends of the Library Fall Book Sale! It's being held Thursday - Saturday, November 12 - 14.

As always, we have other great programs coming up, including:

- Pause & Paint. Are you feeling stressed and overloaded? Take a break at the library with this self-guided program that provides a pre-drawn canvas and supplies, and you paint independently at your own pace.
- Pearl Harbor: Join historian Rich Acritelli to discuss the impact of the surprise Japanese naval operations and assault on Pearl Harbor in 1941 and the start of World War II.
- Spend some time listening to Christmas carols in our reading room before heading to Chef Rob's Hot Chocolate Cookies program on December 12.
- Use your imagination at our Teens Gingerbread House Decorating on December 15 or our Children's Gingerbread House Workshop on December 19!

Also, our new Lending Key for our Library of Things is live. Now when you click on Library of Things, you will be taken to a reservation station where you can reserve things by item or date.

We can't wait to see you at the library soon – remember, libraries are for everyone – and that's a mission we take seriously!

Until next time, I am yours,

Tom Vitale

WHY DO SOME LIBRARY PROGRAMS REQUIRE REGISTRATION?

- Program presenters often require a minimum number of attendees. If we don't have that number, we may have to cancel the program.
- If patrons register and don't show up, we still have to pay our presenters. Many programs have a waitlist - please let us know if you can't make it!
- Most programs require supplies or offer snacks. The library purchases enough for registrants and may not have extras for walk-ins.
- The Library makes an effort to spend the budget as wisely as possible. We need your help with this!
